

How To Preserve Natural Body, Hair & Skin Care Products Table of Contents

Preservative System	4
What is a Natural Preservative?	4
False Information.....	5
Preservative Restrictions in Other Countries	5
Preserving Anhydrous Products	5
What About Adding a Preservative to Body Scrubs?	5
Building a Preservative System.....	6
Water Amount	6
Container	7
Antioxidants.....	8
Self-Preserving Ingredients	8
Chelating Ingredients	9
pH.....	9
Broad Spectrum Preservatives	10
Natural Preservatives derived from nature	10
Glucanolactone and Sodium Benzoate	11
Glucano Delta Lactone	12
Sodium Benzoate.....	12
Leuconostoc/Radish Root Ferment Filtrate.....	13
Leucidal PT.....	14
Leucidal SF	15
High Proof Alcohol.....	16
Denatured High Proof Alcohol	16
Aspen Bark	17
Synthetic Preservatives used in natural products.....	18
Polyaminopropyl Biguanide.....	18
Phenoxyethanol (and) Caprylyl Glycol	19
Phenoxyethanol (and) Benzoic Acid (and) Dehydroacetic Acid	19
Phenoxyethanol (and) Caprylyl Glycol (and) Sorbic Acid	19
Potassium Sorbate	20
Choosing the Best Preservative	21
Creating a Stable and Effective Product.....	22
Good Manufacturing Practices	22
Sanitizing Equipment.....	22
pH Testing.....	23
Adjusting pH	23
Testing Products for Bacteria, Yeast and Mold	24
Plate Counts (APC) (F/YC)	24
Do-It-Yourself Test Kits	24
Challenge Testing – 1 month	24
CTFA Challenge Testing – 2 months	24
Image of CTFA Challenge Testing Results from Lotion	25
Normal Usage Testing	26
Stability Testing.....	26
Weight and Measurement Conversions Chart.....	27
Resources.....	28-33